

The Gold dust resource review

OK, you have now used one or more Gold dust resources. This template helps you to reflect on how that worked out.

Review of the resource
Resource name
General comment Overall, how would you summarise your view of the resource and how using it worked out in practice?
In which ways did the resource contribute to the achievement of the intended learning objectives and/or outcomes?
In which ways did the resource help to challenge participants' preconceptions and expand their horizons?
What aspects of the resource showcased effective teaching and learning approaches?

Do you think the resource is of high quality, stimulating and engaging? Why or why not?
What were the key learning points for you and your participants from your use of this resource?
What will you do next to improve on this?
Overall, would you use the resource again?	Yes or No
Why?	